

The Names

The formal name of the revitalized education program is:

The Toastmasters Pathways learning experience

(This is the full name, but after the first reference, you can call it Pathways.)

Pathways is the learning experience that sets you on your journey of personal and professional development.

The name of the Pathways learning management system is:

Base Camp

Base Camp is where you access the online materials of the Pathways learning experience.